Keynote Speaker

Jacqueline Marcell

Laughter and Tears in the Caregiving Years

Jacqueline Marcell gave up her life to go care for her elderly parents. After enduring her father's rages and fighting through an unsympathetic medical system, her loving persistence turned a seemingly impossible situation around and into a highly-praised book, radio program, blog, and seminar. Author of the best-selling book, "Elder Rage" (www.ElderRage.com), and host of "Coping with Caregiving", an Internet radio program on wsRadio.com, Jacqueline mixes practical advice with humor, presenting creative solutions for managing elders who resist care--offering hope that there can still be a good life after a diagnosis of dementia, if it's properly managed medically and behaviorally.
